

Measles is a highly contagious disease.

High grade fever

Rashes on body

Cough

Runny nose

Red watery eyes

Immunization protects against Measles.

Routine
Immunization

Applicable for all areas

Applicable for
Measles outbreak areas

1st dose:
Age group of 9 to 12 months

*Special dose for high-risk areas:
Age group of 6 to 9 months

2nd dose :
Age group of 16 to 24 months

Additional dose: Age group of 9 months to 5 years

Additional Immunization

For the complete protection

To strengthen protective shield

Additional dose of the Measles containing vaccine can be given after 4 weeks of the previous Measles containing vaccination dose.

*Only applicable for babies less than 9 months of age residing in areas with more than a 10% rate of measles patients.